"Bringing Hope and Life to the Prisoners"

NEWSLETTER FOR JANUARY 2021

From Shelia Johnson
Chaplain and President

Updates: We are still unable to go back into the prisons. As soon as we get more information, we will shout it out in our newsletter. We will also publish the calendar when we get the updates.

Partners: I want to thank those that continue to sow into the ministry. We are still raising money for the Vision which is The Town of Hope. I pray that more would consider giving as this is a place much needed even now. Offenders are being released and the need for beds is growing rapidly.

Everyone, please take every measure necessary to stay safe and healthy from this pandemic. Follow the guidelines given.
Thanks,

JANUARY BIRTHDAYS

We thank our Gracious God for those of you who were born in this awesome first month of the year. We wish you a glorious celebration and join you in giving thanks that you were brought into this world by His pleasure and His Love for you and for us who share this life with you.

During this time of seeming inactivity, we are not dormant, and we are not silent. We continue to do what we are able in obedience to Christ, and we plan for the time when prisons are opened up for us again. We are praying for that day, and for a spirit of creativity from The Lord our Creator on how we can each and as a ministry reach out to meet the needs. We thank those who responded to the call for teaching programs. Chaplain Shelia with Chris Baiz and Dan Groves, met with Pastor Jeff Williams, founder of Eagles Nest ministry that is currently ministering to released inmates with a discipleship program that has gained a good reputation in the Conroe area. We were all encouraged to support each other's ministry. For the work ahead, we still do and always will have vacancies for new volunteers. If God is calling you to be involved in this, you will not be disappointed.

Surely the righteous will give thanks to your name; The upright will dwell in your presence. Ps. 140:13

DWELL:

To live or continue in a given condition or state

To linger over, emphasize, or ponder in thought, speech or writing

To be motionless for a certain interval

Encouragement:

I do not know what still awaits, or what the morrow brings.
But with the glad salute of faith, I hail its open wings!
For this I know-that in my Lord, Shall all my needs be met,
And I can trust the heart of Him, Who has not failed me yet. (and never will Hebrews 13:5)

Congratulations to our brother John Earl on his recent release of his original music and his new book "adventures of Randy" DVD & CD. We know John was encouraged and helped by his home church; Pentecostal Church in Jesus Christ and Pastor Bertha M Brown and thank them for helping John produce these.

Nationally, we have lost hundreds of corrections/detention/custody officers or deputies and other staff members to COVID-19. Even with the vaccine currently being distributed, we are not out of harm's way in our country's jails and prisons. Priority vaccine distribution is planned for public safety personnel and first responders, which rightfully includes correctional staff and correctional healthcare providers. However, vaccine production and distribution is a logistical challenge that will take time to accomplish.

News updates: TDCJ in total there have been 265,838 offenders and 104,377 employees tested for COVID-19. Of those tested, 27,273 offenders and 7,730 staff have tested positive for COVID-19 in both symptomatic and asymptomatic testing. There have been 24,081 offenders and 6,600 employees who have recovered. There have been 177 offender deaths connected to COVID 19 with an additional 43 under investigation. There have been 27 employee line of duty deaths from COVID-19. Please let us continue to pray for both the inmates and the courageous employees who continue serving them and our communities. Let's also not grow weary in supporting and praying for our first responders and health care employees as well.

Upcoming Events:

As of now the only updates is that we are planning on having our Yahweh To Holiness tent revivals in this upcoming year. Probably in the Spring

Dear Past, thank you for your lessons.

Dear Future, I'm ready.

Dear God, Thank you for another chance.

Our hope is not in the New Year ...but in the One who makes all things new.

I've shut the door on Yesterday, It's sorrows and mistakes.

I've locked with its gloomy walls past failures and heartaches.

And now I throw the key away, to seek another room,

And furnish it with hope and smiles, and every springtime bloom.

No thought shall enter this abode, that has a hint of pain.

And every malice and distrust, shall never therein reign,

I've shut the door on Yesterday, and thrown the key away-

Tomorrow holds no doubt for me, Since I have found Today. Contributed by Chaplain Shelia, author unknown.
